- What was the context in which Psalm 96 was originally used?
- What is the characteristic of the other psalms with which it is organized in the book of Psalms?
- What is the relation between these two?
- What is the message that we are to bring to the nations?
- What is unusual about the verb tenses in 96:10, 13 and 98:9?
- How do these verb tenses align with the gospel of the kingdom that our Lord (and John the Baptist) preached?

The Dedication of Jerusalem

Context:

1Ch 16:1 So they brought the ark of God, and set it in the midst of the tent that David had pitched for it: ... 7 Then on that day David delivered first this psalm to thank the LORD into the hand of Asaph and his brethren.

Why bring the ark?

1 Sam. 4:4 So the people sent to Shiloh, that they might bring from thence the ark of the covenant of the LORD of hosts, which dwelleth between the cherubims: ...

2 Sam. 6:2 And David arose, and went with all the people that were with him from Baale of Judah, to bring up from thence the ark of God, whose name is called by the name of the LORD of hosts that dwelleth between the cherubims. ~ 1 Chr 13:6

2 Ki. 19:15 And Hezekiah prayed before the LORD, and said, O LORD God of Israel, which dwellest between the cherubims, thou art the God, even thou alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth; thou hast made heaven and earth. ~ Isa 37:16

Ps. 80:1 <A Psalm of Asaph.> Give ear, O Shepherd of Israel, thou that leadest Joseph like a flock; thou that dwellest between the cherubims, shine forth.

Ps. 99:1 The LORD reigneth; let the people tremble: he sitteth between the cherubims; let the earth be moved.

8-22	105:1-15
23-33	96:2-13
34-36	106:1, 47-48

Isaiah's Vision

Isa 24:23 ... the LORD of hosts shall reign in mount Zion, and in Jerusalem, and before his ancients gloriously.

Isa 55:10 For as the rain cometh down, and the snow from heaven, and returneth not thither, but watereth the earth, and maketh it bring forth and bud, that it may give seed to the sower, and bread to the eater: 11 So shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it. 12 For ye shall go out with joy, and be led forth with peace: the mountains and the hills shall break forth before you into singing, and all the trees of the field shall clap their hands. 13 Instead of the thorn shall come up the fir tree, and instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle tree: and it shall be to the LORD for a name, for an everlasting sign that shall not be cut off.
